Chapter 11 (Subchapter V)

Case No. 24-10157 (REL)

COMPENSATION PROCEDURES

Pursuant to the Order Establishing Procedures for Interim Compensation and Reimbursement of Expenses for Retained Professionals (the “Order”),¹ the following compensation procedures (collectively, the “Compensation Procedures”) shall apply with respect to the allowance and payment of compensation for professional services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred by attorneys and other professionals who will be retained pursuant to sections 327 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code and are required to file applications pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code on terms that satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 2016 and Local Rule 2016-1 (each a “Professional” and collectively, the “Professionals”). Specifically, the Compensation Procedures are as follows:

- a. Following the month or months for which compensation is sought, each Professional seeking interim allowance of its fees and expenses may file an application, which will include the relevant time entry and description and expense detail, with the Court for interim allowance of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred during the preceding month or months (a “Monthly Fee Application”).

- b. Each Professional may submit its first Monthly Fee Application no earlier than the date of entry of this Order. This initial Monthly Fee Application will cover the period from the Petition Date through February 29, 2024. Thereafter, the Professionals may submit Monthly Fee Applications in the manner described above.
- c. Each such Professional shall serve such Monthly Fee Application by first class mail on the following parties: (a) the Debtor, Kris Daniel Roglieri, 40 North Road, Queensbury, NY 12804, finance12207@yahoo.com; (b) proposed counsel for the Debtor, Pashman Stein Walder Hayden, P.C., 233 Broadway, Suite 820, New York, New York, 10279, Attn: Joseph C. Barsalona II (jbarsalona@pashmanstein.com), Amy M. Oden (aoden@pashmanstein.com), and Edward A. Cho-O'Leary (echo-oleary@pashmanstein.com); (c) the Subchapter V Trustee, Zdarsky, Sawicki & Agostinelli LLP, 1600 Main Place Tower, 350 Main Street Buffalo, NY, 14202, Attn: Mark Schlant, Esq. (mschlant@zsalawfirm.com); and (d) the U.S. Trustee, Leo W. O'Brien Federal Building, 11A Clinton Ave., Room 620, Albany, New York 12207, Attn: Lisa M. Penpraze (lisa.penpraze@usdoj.gov) (each a "Notice Party," and, collectively the "Notice Parties").
- d. Any Professional that fails to file a Monthly Fee Application for a particular month or months may subsequently submit a consolidated Monthly Fee Application that includes a request for compensation earned or expenses incurred during previous months. All Monthly Fee Applications shall comply with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules and applicable non-bankruptcy law.
- e. Parties in interest will have 14 days (or the next business day if such day is not a business day) after the service of a Monthly Fee Application (the "Objection Deadline") to object to the requested fees and expenses in accordance with the procedures described in subparagraph (f) below. After expiration of the Objection Deadline, each Professional may file with the Court a certificate of no objection ("CNO") with respect to the unopposed portion of the fees and expenses requested in its Monthly Fee Application. After a CNO is filed, the Debtor is authorized to pay the applicable Professional an amount (the "Actual Monthly Payment") equal to the lesser of (i) 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses requested in the Monthly Fee Application (the "Maximum Monthly Payment") or (ii) 80% of the fees and 100% of the expenses not subject to an objection pursuant to subparagraph (f) below.
- f. If any party in interest wishes to object to a Professional's Monthly Fee Application, it must (i) file a written objection (each, an "Objection") with the Court on or before the Objection Deadline and (ii) serve the Objection on the affected Professional and each of the other Notice Parties so that it is actually received by the other Notice Parties on or before the Objection Deadline. Any such Objection shall identify, with specificity, the objectionable fees and/or expenses, including the amount of such objected to fees and/or expenses and the basis for such Objection. Thereafter, the objecting party and the affected Professional may attempt to resolve the Objection on a consensual basis. If the parties are unable to reach a resolution of the Objection within 14 days after service of the Objection, the affected Professional may either: (i) file a request with the Court for payment of the difference, if any, between the Maximum Monthly Payment and the Actual Monthly Payment made to the affected Professional (the “Incremental Amount”); or (ii) forego payment of the Incremental Amount until the next interim or final fee application hearing, at which time the Court will consider and rule on the Objection if requested by the parties. Payment of the Incremental Amount will be allowed upon the Court’s disposal of the Objection.

- g. At approximately four-month intervals or such other intervals convenient to the Court (the “Interim Fee Period”), each of the Professionals may file with the Court and serve on the Notice Parties a request (an “Interim Fee Application”) for interim Court approval and allowance of the compensation and reimbursement of expenses sought by such Professional in its Monthly Fee Statements, including any holdbacks, filed during the Interim Fee Period, pursuant to section 331 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Interim Fee Application include a brief description identifying:
- i. the Monthly Fee Applications that are the subject of the request;
 - ii. the amount of fees and expenses requested;
 - iii. the amount of fees and expenses approved to date or subject to an Objection;
 - iv. any other information requested by the Court or required by the Bankruptcy Rules or Local Rules, including Bankruptcy Rule 2016(a) and Local Rule 2016-1.

Each Professional shall file its first Interim Fee Application on or before July 30, 2024, and the first Interim Fee Application shall cover the period from the Petition Date through June 30, 2024. Thereafter, each Professional must file its Interim Fee Application within 30 days (or the next business day if such day is not a business day) after the end of the applicable Interim Fee Period.

- h. The Debtor will request that the Court schedule a hearing on Interim Fee

Applications at least once every three months or at such other intervals as the Court deems appropriate. Parties in interest will have 14 days (or the next business day if such day is not a business day) after the service of an Interim Fee Application to file an Objection. The Court, in its discretion, may approve an uncontested Interim Fee Application without the need for a hearing, upon the Professional's filing of a CNO. Upon allowance by the Court of a Professional's Interim Fee Application, the Debtor will be authorized to promptly pay such Professional all allowed fees (including the 20% holdback) and expenses not previously paid.

- i. The pendency of an Objection to payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses shall not disqualify a Professional from the future payment of compensation or reimbursement of expenses pursuant to the Compensation Procedures. Any Professional that fails to file an Interim Fee Application when permitted will be ineligible to receive further interim payments of fees or expenses under the Compensation Procedures until such time as an Interim Fee Application is submitted by the Professional.
- j. Professionals will each file a final application for compensation and reimbursement (the "Final Fee Application") on or before the deadline set in a confirmed chapter 11 plan or an order of the Court. Each Final Fee Application must comply with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and this Court's orders.
- k. Neither (i) the payment of or the failure to pay, in whole or in part, monthly or interim compensation and reimbursement of expenses under the Compensation Procedures nor (ii) the filing of or failure to file an Objection will bind any party in interest or the Court with respect to the final allowance of applications for compensation and reimbursement of expenses of Professionals. All fees and expenses paid to Professionals under the Compensation Procedures are subject to disgorgement until final allowance by the Court.
